-----X

Plaintiff SABRINA THOMAS (“Plaintiff”), through her attorneys, DEREK SMITH LAW GROUP, PLLC, hereby complains of defendants ECD NY INC., BARRY MCKENNA, and GARY SMITH (collectively, “Defendants”), upon information and belief, as follows:

NATURE OF CASE

1. Plaintiff complains pursuant to Title VII of the Civil Rights Act of 1964, as codified, 42 U.S.C. §§ 2000e to 2000e-17 (amended in 1972, 1978 and by the Civil Rights Act of 1991, Pub. L. (the “NYSHRL”), New York Labor Law §§ 194, 198, and the Administrative Code of the City of New York § 8-107 (the “NYCHRL”), as amended by the Restoration Act of 2005, based upon the supplemental jurisdiction of this Court pursuant to United Mine Workers of America v. Gibbs, 383 U.S. 715 (1966) and 28 U.S.C. § 1367, seeking declaratory and injunctive relief and damages to redress the injuries that Plaintiff has suffered as a result of sex/gender discrimination, retaliation, and unlawful termination by Defendants.

5. Around August 7, 2017, Plaintiff received a Right to Sue Letter from the EEOC.

6. Plaintiff satisfied all administrative prerequisites and is filing this case within ninety (90) days of receiving the Right to Sue Letter.

7. Venue is proper in this District based upon the fact that the events or omissions that give rise to the claims asserted herein occurred within the Eastern District of New York.

PARTIES

8. Plaintiff is a female and resident of Queens County, New York.

9. Defendant, ECD NY INC. (hereinafter referred to as “ECD”) is a domestic business corporation duly existing by the virtue and laws of the State of New York that does business in the State of New York. ECD is an employer for purposes of the Title VII claims made herein, and may sue or be sued, and its principle place of business is 3512 19th Avenue, Suite 2W, Astoria, New York, 11105.

10. At all times material, Defendant ECD employed Plaintiff as a fire guard.

11. At all times material, Defendant, BARRY MCKENNA (hereinafter referred to as “MCKENNA”) was and is the President of Defendant ECD.

12. At all times material, Defendant MCKENNA had supervisory authority over Plaintiff with regard to her employment.

13. At all times material, Defendant GARY SMITH (hereinafter referred to as “SMITH”) was and is a Project Manager of Defendant ECD.

14. At all times material, Defendant SMITH had supervisory authority over Plaintiff with regard to her employment.

STATEMENT OF FACTS

15. ECD specializes in assisting and supporting excavation, pile drilling and foundation projects in the construction industry. Due to the use of open flames on construction sites, ECD employs fire guards.

16. Prior to Plaintiff’s employment with Defendant ECD, Plaintiff worked as a security guard at the same construction sites as Defendant ECD.

17. Defendant ECD’s employees would oftentimes ask Plaintiff to stand in as a fire guard, given that Plaintiff held an Occupational Safety and Health Administration (a/k/a “OSHA”) certification and was licensed as a flagger and fire guard.

18. Around May 2015, Defendant MCKENNA contacted Plaintiff to offer her a permanent fire guard position with Defendant ECD at a starting hourly rate of $14.00.

19. Around July 2015, Defendants asked Plaintiff if she could refer “pretty, sexy girls” to hire as fire guards.

20. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of her sex/gender.

21. Plaintiff decided to look past Defendants’ inappropriate comment in light of the opportunity to help her family members that were seeking employment at the time.

22. Around August 2015, Defendants hired Plaintiff’s daughter at an hourly rate of $12.00. At the time, Plaintiff was unaware of her daughter's starting hourly wage.

23. Defendants engaged in patterns, practices and/or policies of employment which willfully, and in the alternative, unwilfully, discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of her sex/gender and by paying Plaintiff a lesser rate of pay than that paid to male employees performing the same or substantially similar job duties which require equal skill, effort, and responsibility, and under the same working conditions and at the same establishments.

24. Between July 2015 and October 2015, Plaintiff mentioned to Defendant MCKENNA that she wanted a raise. Fearful that Defendant MCKENNA would fire Plaintiff, Plaintiff decided to wait several months to raise the issue with Defendants again.

25. Around October 2015, Defendants were in need of an employee that possessed an Air Compressor License and paid for Plaintiff's air compressor and torch operation examinations.

26. Between October 2015 and November 2015, Plaintiff discovered that her male coworkers' starting hourly wages were between $20.00 to $22.00 and that they had less credentials and/or certifications than Plaintiff.

27. Plaintiff was paid less than the rate at which an employee of the opposite sex at ECD would be paid for a job requiring equal skill and performed under similar working conditions.

28. Around the last week of November 2015, Plaintiff asked Defendant MCKENNA for a raise to receive equal pay as her male coworkers and to match the market rate for a fire guard in the geographic area. Upon information and belief, Defendant MCKENNA was aware Plaintiff's hourly wage was less than the market rate. Defendant MCKENNA then told Plaintiff that he "was going to look into it."

29. At that time, Plaintiff was highly valued at ECD because of her Air Compressor license and did not receive any reprimands or bad reviews for her job performance.

30. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of her sex/gender.

31. Between November 2015 and June 2016, Defendants did not give Plaintiff a raise.

32. Plaintiff continued to ask Defendants for a raise and Defendants told her that they would get back to her or that she would be receiving it soon.

33. For several weeks, Plaintiff relentlessly checked her pay stubs to see if Defendants gave her a raise, but to no avail.

34. Defendants required Plaintiff perform the same or substantially the same job position as male employees, requiring equal skill, effort, and responsibility under similar working conditions at the same establishment, and paid Plaintiff a rate of pay less than such male employees. The differential rate of pay was not part of or occasioned by a seniority system, merit system, a system based on the quantity or quality of production, or upon a factor other than gender.

35. Plaintiff became increasingly frustrated by Defendants and informed Defendants that she would be forced to leave if Defendants did not give her equal pay.

36. Defendant SMITH asked Plaintiff not to leave ECD because they needed her for construction sites that required a fire guard with an Air Compressor license.

37. Around June 30, 2016, Defendants gave Plaintiff a $2.00 raise, bringing Plaintiff's hourly wage to $16.00 per hour.

38. Defendants knowingly paid Plaintiff less than her male coworkers for a job requiring equal skill and performed under similar working conditions.

39. Defendants discriminated against Plaintiff on the basis of her sex/gender.

40. Upset and disappointed, Plaintiff called Defendant MCKENNA to ask why she was still making less than her male coworkers and less than the market rate for a fire guard in the construction industry.

41. Defendant MCKENNA ignored Plaintiff's calls.

42. Around July 2016, Defendants stopped assigning Plaintiff to construction sites.

43. After several days passed, Plaintiff called the Defendants' office and asked if she was getting fired. Defendants' employee could not give Plaintiff a straight answer.

44. Defendants unlawfully terminated Plaintiff.

45. At all times material, Defendants engaged in a pattern and practice of discrimination against female employees.

46. Defendants knowingly and willfully paid females less than the rate at which an employee of the opposite sex at ECD would be paid for a job requiring equal skill and performed under similar working conditions.

47. Defendants' discriminatory treatment towards Plaintiff resulted in psychological and physical harm to Plaintiff. Defendants' actions made Plaintiff feel extremely humiliated, degraded, victimized, and emotionally distressed. Indeed, Plaintiff was unable to afford housing and was forced into poverty.

48. As a result, Plaintiff suffered and continues to suffer severe emotional distress, physical ailments, pecuniary losses, emotional pain, suffering, inconvenience, loss of enjoyment of life, and other non-pecuniary losses.

49. The Defendants' conduct was malicious, willful, and outrageous, conducted with full knowledge of the law and Plaintiff demands punitive damages against all Defendants, jointly and severally.

50. The above are some of the examples of unlawful discrimination, inequality and retaliation to which the Defendants subjected Plaintiff on an ongoing continuous basis.

51. Plaintiff claims a continuous practice of discrimination and claims a continuing violation and makes all claims herein under the continuing violations doctrine.
